THE 2ND ANNUAL INDONESIAN SPEECH CONTEST WILL BE HELD IN SEOUL

The Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia in Seoul and the Korean-Indonesia Friendship Association (KIFA) will organize the Indonesian Speech Contest 2006 on November 9, 2006 at the Indonesian Embassy's auditorium (2nd floor). This contest is open to Korean public. All participants are to demonstrate their ability to deliver a speech in Bahasa Indonesia. The topic that should be presented this year is "How to Promote Bilateral Relations between Indonesia and South Korea."

The Indonesian Speech Contest is an annual program which was held for the first time in 2005. The objective of this activity is to promote Indonesian language and culture to Korean people, as well as to enhance the cordial relations between the Republic of Indonesia and the Republic of Korea.

Those who are interested in this event are welcomed to participate in. For further information of this contest, contact the Indonesian Embassy, tel. 82-2-783.5675-7. The Indonesian Speech Contest 2006 will be opened by Indonesian Ambassador, H.E. Jakob Tobing at 10:00 A.M.

Two best contestants will be selected as winners and awarded ticket and accommodation to enjoy unforgettable trip to three cities in Indonesia: Bali, Jakarta and Lombok.

The Indonesian Speech Contest 2006 is sponsored by the Kookmin Bank.
